

Captivating Continued Connections: Alumni Engagement

Project Title	Captivating Continued Connections: Alumni Engagement
Project Summary	Engage our exchange program alumni after their grants. Brainstorm and research methods to keep them connected to Fulbright and the State Department.
Country	United States
Country/Region of Focus	South Asia

Project Description

Are you a great networker? Do you know how to keep people interested and engaged in a program after its over it has ended? Are you actively using a range of online platforms? We are looking for someone to support the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs' South and Central Asia Branch in brainstorming and implementing ways to better engage our program alumni, including both U.S. citizens and foreign participants. This eIntern should have some knowledge and understanding of the South and Central Asia region, which has some of the largest Fulbright alumni networks in the world. Countries include: Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, the Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan.
